BRITISH COUNCIL IELTS 200-235 €

IELTS is the world's most popular high stakes English language test. It is designed to assess the English language ability of people wanting to study and work in Canada, allowing them to immigrate to and integrate into an English-speaking environment. It is desired by most workplaces and universities when looking to employ or enrol people from other countries.

British Council has been evaluating language proficiency through IELTS in Canada for over 10 years.

GESE Refresh

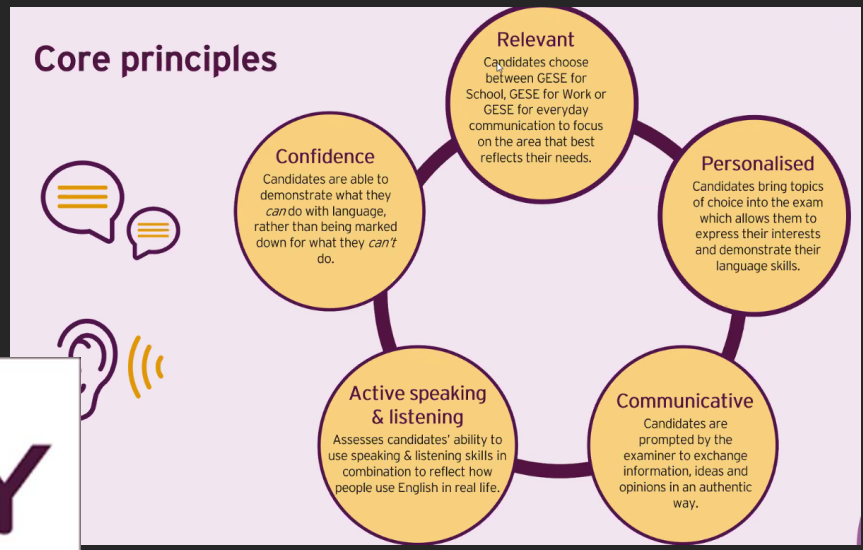

What's changing?

- Candidates will be able to choose between GESE for School, GESE for Work and GESE for everyday communication and visa purposes.
- The grammatical structures listed for each grade will be suggested rather than required items.
- Candidates tell the examiner at the start of the exam which focus area they would like to follow. If all candidates in a session choose the same focus area, the teacher may inform the examiner at the beginning of the session instead.
- Trinity examiners are trained to conduct the exam in an age-appropriate way regardless of thecandidate's choice.

The tasks and assessment method will remain the way they have been, which means that there is no impact on your teaching. The lexis listed for each grade remains relevant.

Gives candidates agency and flexibility through the opportunity to discuss a topic of their interest and choose the pathway that is most relevant to their life and goals.	Supports students on their learning journey by providing the opportunity to demonstrate skills in an exam environment, and build confidence for further exams, future study and work.	Provides a formal, OfQual regulated qualification as evidence of English language ability from a reputable exam board.	Adds value to the language learning experience abroad to mark achievement and progression at the end of a course.

GESE Exam structure and tasks

ALTE Q209 Quality audited by the Association of Language Testers in Europe

Listening task – listen to a short passage and answer questions

Topic presentation – give a presentation on a topic of your choice

Interactive task – ask questions about a situation you are given

Topic discussion – talk about a topic of your choice

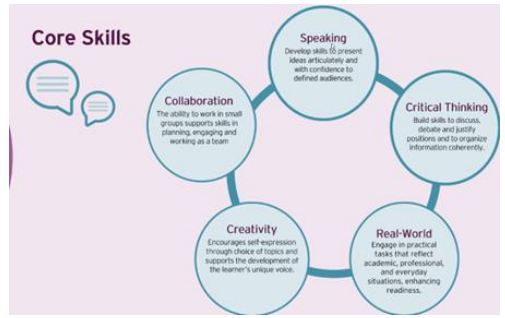

Conversation – talk about two subjects and give your ideas and opinion

Grade 1 – Everyday Life	Grade 5 – Charitable Cause	Grade 8 - Media
CONVERSATION Brief conversation led by the examiner on one or two of the following topics (the examiner chooses the topic(s)): ◗ What is your favourite type of weather? ◗ What is your favourite book/film/song/ computer game? ◗ Who is your favourite real or fictional person?	PRESENTATION Presentation in support of a particular cause or charity to an imagined, defined audience. Before they begin, the candidate should specify the intended audience, size and venue. Examiner engages the candidate in a discussion to gather further information on the topic.	PRESENTATION Presentation exploring how a product or topic is communicated to its target audience through the media or advertising. The presentation should include analysis of the ideas conveyed and explain the effectiveness and impact of the communication methods and tools used. Delivered to an imagined, defined audience of at least 20 people. The candidate should specify the intended audience, size and venue. Examiner engages the candidate in a discussion to further explore their analysis.
TALK Gives a talk about one of the following topics: ◗ A remarkable person ◗ Their favourite activity ◗ Their favourite holiday The examiner asks a few questions about the topic.	PRESENTING THE NEWS Delivers TWO contrasting news stories as if for broadcast (eg TV, radio or social media) that contrast in tone and subject. Both items can be original writing and the candidate should state who the intended audiences are before they begin.	KEY SKILLS – PUBLIC ADDRESS Delivers a two-minute public address based on a scenario they have chosen from a selection. Then the examiner will request an adjustment to the address, giving the candidate two minutes to prepare before presenting again. The revised address must stay within the two-minute limit.
TALK Gives a talk about the value and significance of TWO small objects or pictures they bring to the exam room. The examiner asks a few questions about the objects or pictures.	REFLECTIVE DISCUSSION Discussion about the preparation and delivery of the presentation and the news stories. The discussion focuses on how the candidate prepared for the tasks and how vocal and physical skills were used to communicate their ideas, including their use of pause, emphasis, variations in phrasing and pace,	KEY SKILLS - DIFFERING PERSPECTIVES Presents an overview of an issue of their own choice from current affairs, social media or politics to discuss, and explains TWO differing perspectives to the examiner. The examiner asks questions exploring the issues involved.

Further Grades
